Planning for ________________________________

A. You have a test in the future. How many hours per week do you need to study for it?

Estimate of hours: _____________________
This estimate may change as you get into material and find you need more or less time.

B. Work out a schedule from now to test time to put in necessary hours. Spread out the study hours. What will you study for each time? Be sure to place a ✓ when you are done.

Examples for study options: Topics, Concepts, Chapters, Definitions, Timelines, etc.
Planning for ________________________________

A. Repeat this per week. ✔ by the hour when you have finished studying.
