ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Academic Support contributes to retention and degree completion for Auburn University undergraduate students. The office provides a variety of academic skill development programs that promote self-directed learning strategies and student success.

AUBURN
Office of the Provost

ACADEMIC COACHING
Academic Coaching is a free program that empowers students to achieve academic goals through improved study habits and strategies. Students work with a coach to identify action steps to meet personal outcomes.

STUDY PARTNERS
Study Partners provides free peer tutoring for a variety of undergraduate core courses. The program and its tutors encourage students to grow as confident, self-directed learners in their studies.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION
Supplemental Instruction (SI) supports historically difficult classes with free, weekly, active-review sessions facilitated by students who previously excelled in the course. SI sessions are interactive opportunities to improve content knowledge, develop skills, and make peer connections.

ACADEMICS AT AUBURN

Auburn University is a public, four-year, research institution.

Common first-year student challenges include...

- Average class size for most core courses
- Academic expectations of Auburn University students
- Time spent studying or utilizing academic resources

ACADEMIC SUPPORT RESOURCES

There are high expectations for students, but there are resources on campus to help students meet this challenge!

When connecting with Academic Support, remember...

- All enrolled undergraduate students are welcome
- Use our resources early and often (proactive vs. reactive)
- We are here for any student seeking academic support

ACADEMIC COACHING

WHAT: A free personalized program where students partner with a graduate-level coach to implement action steps to achieve academic and personal goals.

WHY: Students learn strategies to improve learning habits and skills covering areas such as time management, test-taking, reading comprehension, and more.

HOW: Schedule your Academic Coaching appointment using Advise Assist (on students' AU Access page).

STUDY PARTNERS

WHAT: A free peer tutoring program for a variety of core courses. Tutoring is offered as one-on-one appointments for undergraduate students.

WHY: Students work through challenging course-specific content and grow as confident, self-directed, learners.

HOW: Schedule your peer tutoring appointment using Advise Assist (on students' AU Access page) or via Knack app (see Academic Support website).

SUPPLEMENTAL INSTRUCTION (SI)

WHAT: Free, twice a week, interactive review sessions planned by students who successfully completed the course.

WHY: Students gain content mastery, make peer connections, and develop skills for academic success in historically difficult core classes.

HOW: If their course is supported by SI, students will receive communications from their SI Leader with dates, times, and the location for their SI sessions.

UNIV 2100 Peer Education in Higher Ed

WHAT: 1- credit hour course taught by Academic Support staff that provides a chance to consider the ways one learns and grows through experiences as a peer educator at AU.

WHY: On campus employment is a great way to gain a sense of belonging at college, and there are many opportunities across campus as a peer educator. UNIV 2100 is designed to help you prepare for or make sense of those experiences.
